First National Title Insurance Welcomes Tim Redding as Vice President & Underwriting Counsel

PLANO, Texas (March 1, 2013) First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) welcomes the addition of Timothy J. Redding to its staff as vice president & underwriting counsel. Continuing a 35 year career in the title industry in which he served in a variety of executive underwriting positions, Redding is excited to add another chapter to his storied resume. Redding has been actively involved in the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), serving on a number of committees as a member, and as chairman. He served as President of the TLTA in 1997-1998 and was named Title Person of the Year in 1993—the highest honor given by the Association. Redding is a member of the State Bar of Texas.

Redding's experience and knowledge will complement the excellent underwriting support currently provided by Ellen Wied.

"Our goal to serve the independent agent's underwriting needs is greatly enhanced by the addition of Tim. His reputation, knowledge of the industry, and personal relationships are valuable assets to a start-up operation, and it is an honor to have him join our team. One of the most important criteria agents' seek in their choice of underwriters is a philosophy of finding ways to get transactions closed. Tim shares that philosophy and is looking forward to being of service to all the FNTI agents," said Chris Phillips, CEO of FNTI.

Company Vision – To serve the needs of the independent agent and provide sound underwriting decisions and education to our agents. We strive to become your independent underwriter of choice.

Company Philosophy – People do business with those they know, like, and trust.
