DALLAS, Texas - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is pleased to announce the addition of three highly regarded and experienced professionals to the First National Title Insurance team.

DJ Horn expands his role with FNTI as he assumes the role of Vice President/National Agency Manager with responsibilities extending beyond our Texas footprint.

This team brings an additional level of service and expertise to the FNTI staff and enhances the independent agent experience. With growth rates of over 30 percent, additional staff has always been a key factor in our expansion initiative. The opportunity to add this particular group of industry veterans creates exciting new possibilities.

"I have known each of these professionals for many years and watched them grow their relationships and their business in the Texas market. They are a natural fit for our independent agent-driven underwriter," said FNTI President Chris Phillips. "George will lead our sales team and together with Geri Hosterman, Suzanne Tinsley, and DJ Horn, they will bring a strong customer service attitude to our existing and new agents. NolaAnn complements our legal team with her own style of experienced underwriting solutions."

The additions to our staff will allow First National Title Insurance to take advantage of the strong real estate markets in Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and other states as we look for growth opportunities.
