LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Company Expands & Hires Jacquie Brink as SVP, Great Lakes Region Agency Manager

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is excited to announce the addition of Jacquie Brink, senior vice president, Great Lakes Region agency manager.

Jacquie, who currently serves as the incoming president of the Michigan Land Title Association, will be heading FNTI's expansion efforts into the Great Lakes Region, focusing on providing support services starting with Michigan and Ohio and eventually the surrounding states.

"I am truly excited for the opportunity to be a part of First National Title Insurance Company's expansion into the Great Lakes Region. The commitment it has to the independent title agent's growth and long-term sustainability is truly exceptional," says Brink.

"We are thrilled to add Jacquie to our growing team of professional leaders," says DJ Horn, SVP, national agency manager. "She fits our culture perfectly. Jacquie understands what it means to truly serve people in the industry and how important it is for title agents to feel like their underwriter has their back. She has real relationships with agents who can't wait to learn about FNTI and its independent agent-minded philosophy."

The Great Lakes Region is the latest expansion into several new states for FNTI, which is now licensed in 28 states across the United States with more on the way.

Chris Phillips, president and CEO of FNTI added, "Our expansion into the Great Lakes Region is centered around the proven success of Jacquie Brink. Jacquie brings a "can-do" attitude and entrepreneurial spirit that agents rely on to be successful. FNTI is an entrepreneurial company, and Jacquie is exactly the right person to deliver our message. With Jacquie's enthusiasm and dedication to the agents, who wouldn't be motivated to give us a try."
