LATEST NEWS: FNTI Reaches $50 Million in Revenue in 2015!

PLANO, Texas – First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) reported revenues for the company's third full year of operations of $49.98 million, representing another year-over-year increase of over 35 percent (36.9%).

"This is a remarkable milestone for our company and I am pleased to share our results. With an increase of 37 percent in 2015, our gross revenues grew to $50 million, which is an incredible growth rate. It is a tribute to the independent agents and their support, that we reached this milestone in just four years," stated CEO Chris Phillips. "Our results are reflective of the positive real estate markets in Texas, Arizona and New Mexico – the areas in which we concentrate our efforts. And in each of these states, we have increased our market share."

"Over the past four years, we made great strides getting FNTI's message out to the independent agents that we were created and designed to support and service them. The FNTI model is more important than ever as the large underwriters expand their influence into the independent agent's market," Phillips added.

FNTI's expanded team provides the staff to answer the calls, to analyze the problems, and to educate the agents. The company motto that we "...do business with those we know, like, and trust" has never been more relevant.
