RE: Changes to the On-Demand Seminars Process

First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) has been offering our agents continuing education credit with the On-Demand Seminar program in conjunction with the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) since 2014 with many of you taking advantage of this service to fulfill your educational needs.

Effective August 1, 2018, there were some changes to the process to access this system. The courses can be accessed directly from the TLTA website and now require a discount code unique to FNTI. This code will allow you to watch the seminars at no cost to you or your company. Please see the attached instructions for specific information.

An instructional video on the new On-Demand Seminar registration process is also available. Click on the link below to learn more about the new system.
