LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Company Adds Chad Hansen as Compliance/Regulatory Counsel

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is excited to announce the addition of Chad Hansen to the FNTI team as Compliance/Regulatory Counsel.

Hansen comes to FNTI with 23 years of experience in the title industry, with roles ranging from field operations to executive level positions. He has worked for regional and national underwriters and has owned and operated title agencies in several states. Hansen's extensive legal experience and his willingness to learn and adapt will allow him to assist with regulatory and compliance issues as FNTI expands into other states and other areas of business.

"I intend to use my experience working with persons inside and outside the industry to bring creative ideas and efficiencies to FNTI and help it expand its underwriting and agency footprint," said Hansen. "This is an exciting opportunity to use a skill set that has developed over several years to help First National continue to grow and expand its underwriting operations."

"We are extremely excited to have Chad join our team. Chad has a rare blend of legal experience and expertise, executive leadership, and practical industry knowledge, which will greatly assist FNTI's strategic growth and service to our independent agents," said Kyle Rank, EVP, business development.

"Expanding FNTI's national footprint requires us to identify specific regions and specific regional leaders to drive our success. Chad Hansen is the leader we recognized early in our expansion process," added Chris Phillips, president and CEO. "His role at FNTI provides us the knowledge and experience to properly grow our brand nationally."
