LATEST NEWS: *First National Title Insurance Company Adds Stephen Parker to Southwest Region's Underwriting Team as VP & Texas Underwriting Counsel

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is pleased to announce the addition of Stephen Parker to its underwriting team as vice president & Texas underwriting counsel.

Stephen is a locally born Houstonian and grew up in Decatur, Texas. He began working early in the industry as a land surveyor in high school and into college. After graduating from the University of Texas in Austin, he worked as a loan officer for the next six years to then move into oil and gas as a landman and worked to acquire his law degree. Shortly after graduating from Texas A&M University Law School, Stephen started his own law practice and has been handling transactions, curative work, document preparation and, most recently, acting as general counsel for a local title agent, Title Resources Denton, for the past five years.

"I believe a company is only as good as its people, and during my time in the industry, everyone I've worked with at First National Title Insurance Company has been wonderful! I look forward to and appreciate the opportunity I have with this great company of great people!" says Parker.

General Counsel, David Hays added, "We are excited Stephen has joined our team. Stephen's diverse background, agency experience and entrepreneurial spirit make him a fantastic fit and valuable addition to the FNTI family."

Stephen will be assisting with underwriting questions for our Texas agents.
