LATEST NEWS: *First National Title Insurance Company Celebrates Ten-Year Anniversary with Monthlong Campaign

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) celebrated “10 years of service you know, like, and trust” this past month with a monthlong campaign celebrating its customers and employees across social media and with in-person events.

The company held a celebratory luncheon at the corporate office for employees on its official birthday, March 16th. Chris Phillips, president & CEO, handed out Years of Service Awards as well as other achievements. The event was a way to thank the entire staff who made the last ten years of service possible and truly celebrate those who created a benchmark of success.

“I am so extremely proud of what this company has been able to accomplish over a decade in business,” said Phillips. “First National Title Insurance Company was created at the right time, by the right team, and for the right reasons, one being a need for an independent agent-focused underwriter.”

FNTI also celebrated its customers and top agents throughout the month. Special awards were given to agents to thank them for trusting them with their business over the last decade.

“Our growth would not be possible if not for the support and trust of our agents - we consider them a part of our team. They make us successful - and we try to never forget that. I am not sure what the next decade looks like for FNTI, but if the past ten years have been any indication, I am confident in a very exciting ride and a very bright future for us and our team of agents,” added Phillips.
