LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Company Celebrates Jacquie Brink as New MLTA President

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is excited to celebrate the induction of Jacquie Brink, senior vice president, Great Lakes Region agency manager as new Michigan Land Title Association's President.

"I'm extremely honored to serve as President of the Michigan Land Title Association and I'm looking forward to the upcoming year. I will be surrounded by an extremely knowledgeable group of Directors on the Board, and together we will continue to help the organization evolve to bring value to our members," says Brink, "FNTI has been very supportive knowing what this upcoming year will look like for me. The amount of time it takes away from my normal day to day duties at FNTI will be challenging, but they are behind me 100% which will make my job as President much easier."

"I am proud that Jacquie Brink has been elected serve as president of Michigan Land Title Association this year. Her years of experience and involvement on both the agent and underwriter sides of the business give her a unique opportunity to make an impact on the issues facing our industry in MI. As I attended the MLTA meeting this summer, I saw the relationships and connections that Jacquie has created within the industry and am confident she will provide a successful year of leadership for the association. Congratulations Jacquie," says company President/CEO, Chris Phillips."

Jacquie, served as president-elect of the Michigan Land Title Association last year, and at this year's MLTA Annual convention was officially sworn in as President. Brink has been expanding the FNTI brand and services throughout the Great Lakes Region, in Michigan and Ohio and other surrounding states.
