LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Company Enhances Florida Region with Addition of Vicki Campbell & Production Team!

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is thrilled to announce the addition of Vicki Campbell and her production team in Florida to the FNTI family.

Florida Production Manager, Vicki Campbell, brings over 35 years of title experience. Before joining First National Title Insurance Company, Vicki worked with three national underwriters and has enjoyed a career on both the direct and agency services sides of the industry. She completed her studies in Real Estate Paralegal at Pensacola State College. A licensed title agent since 2002, she has also held the Certified Land Searcher designation from the Florida Land Title Association since 1988.

Florida Region Manager, Brad Jones states "We have been looking for a local, Florida based search and exam team for our agents. I have no doubt that our agents will benefit from Vicki and her team's years of experience in the industry and knowledge. I am very excited for the future of our agents in Florida and look forward to being your partner in success!"

Vicki brings with her, Cody Campbell as Florida assistant production manager, Ben Murzin as Florida title examiner, and Erin Brock as Florida title assistant.

"The leadership at FNTI understands that 'People do business with those they know, like and trust' and their overall vision matches ours," Vicki Campbell stated. "We look forward to learning from each other and building an innovative, agent-centric approach to title production in Florida. We all want to deliver the highest customer service levels in the title insurance industry. That service includes title products they can trust."
