LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Company Expands Texas Underwriting Team with Addition of Robin Ezzell

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is excited to announce Robin Ezzell has joined the Texas Underwriting Counsel team.

Robin Ezzell brings more than 20 years of experience in the title insurance and real estate industries. Robin Ezzell grew up in Dallas, Texas and attended Southern Methodist University, where she earned her bachelor's degree in political science with a minor in dance performance. She later attended St. Mary's University School of Law before returning to Dallas to work with a boutique law firm focusing on criminal law, wills and estates, and family law. After relocating to Austin in 2002, Robin transitioned into the title insurance industry, where she has built an extensive career with a strong background in underwriting operations, agency support, and relationship management throughout the Texas market. Her industry knowledge, experience, and dedication to exceptional service further strengthen FNTI's commitment to providing trusted underwriting expertise and responsive support to its agents and partners across the state.

"Robin is a respected professional in our industry, and I'm excited to welcome her to the FNTI team," said David Hays, President & General Counsel of FNTI. "Her experience, professionalism, and dedication to the industry speak for themselves, and I have no doubt she will be a tremendous addition to our Texas underwriting team. Robin's background on the agency side gives her a unique perspective that will prove invaluable in how she approaches underwriting and supports our agents. We look forward to her continuing our commitment to delivering the high-quality underwriting service and support our agents have come to expect from FNTI."

Robin's addition reflects FNTI's continued growth and investment in its Texas operations, reinforcing the company's focus on combining deep industry expertise with personalized service for independent title agents.

"Becoming a part of the FNTI team marks the culmination of many years dedicated to the title insurance industry in Texas. I am truly grateful for the opportunity to join a team renowned for conducting business with integrity and excellence. It is an honor and a privilege to become part of this esteemed institution, where I look forward to sharing my knowledge and experience to support our outstanding agents facing complex challenges. I am committed to being a valuable asset to FNTI and to exceeding expectations in all that I do," says Ezzell.

FNTI continues to expand its national footprint while maintaining its reputation for responsive underwriting, strong agent relationships, and innovative solutions that support the success of independent title professionals nationwide.
