LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Company Adds Steve Trubatisky as Texas Agent Education & Training

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is pleased to announce Steve Trubatisky as Texas Agent Education & Training.

Steve has been a Texas Realtor/Broker for over 32 years. He has decades of experience selling homes across Texas and understands the challenges, stresses and emotions realtors encounter trying to provide a smooth, successful real estate transaction for their clients. He incorporates his experiences into his CE course writing to bring real life examples to the students. His educational focus centers on helping agents become exceptional in their real estate practice. Steve will be working directly with our Texas agents and sales team to enhance and develop additional educational and training resources.

"As a real estate professional and educator, training real estate agents to become exceptional in their real estate practice has always been a top priority. My passion for writing and teaching realtor CE courses to inspire agents to be their best will enhance the education team's already strong depth of industry education. With our shared commitment for providing exceptional customer service through title insurance and education, First National Title Insurance will provide a higher level of agent services," says Trubatisky.

April Roberts, VP, Education & Training, adds, "We are excited to have Steve Trubatisky join our team. With Steve's knowledge and experience in the Texas real estate business, he is a perfect addition to the education department and for our agents."
