LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Company Launches Preferred Vendor Program to Support Agent Growth

PLANO, TEXAS — First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) announces the launch of its Preferred Vendor Program, a new initiative designed to help title agents grow their businesses by connecting them with vetted, trusted industry partners.

Built around the philosophy “What Is Your Underwriter Doing for You?”, the program reinforces FNTI’s commitment to providing value beyond the policy by offering agents access to vendors that support marketing, technology, compliance, education, and operational efficiency.

“Today’s agents need more than underwriting support — they need a good list of trusted resources that help them operate smarter and grow stronger,” said Suzanne Tinsley, EVP, Agency Director. “Our Preferred Vendor Program reflects how FNTI works for agents by reducing risk, saving time, and connecting them to partners we trust.”

All vendors included in the program are reviewed and selected by FNTI based on their industry experience, reliability, and ability to support agent success. The program is designed to evolve alongside the needs of agents and the marketplace.

The Preferred Vendor Program complements FNTI’s broader suite of agent support services, including education and training, sales and marketing resources, title production services, and its core responsive underwriting expertise.
