LATEST NEWS: First National Title Insurance Promotes Devin Storms to SVP, Western Region Manager

PLANO, TEXAS - First National Title Insurance Company (FNTI) is proud to announce the promotion of Devin Storms to SVP, Western Region Manager.

Storms joined FNTI in June of 2020 as an agency manager and has been influential in our expansion in the western region over the past two years. She has increasingly taken on more responsibilities over her time with the company, showing her true leadership and business character. She has been in the title industry since 2003, working on the agency side from client care clerk to commercial sales then transitioning into the underwriter side of business development. In her new role, she will oversee growth for FNTI's western region which includes Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, and Wyoming.

"One of the most compelling reasons I had for joining FNTI was the growth trajectory the company is on. We've had amazing success in our expansion efforts over the past few years, and I'm looking forward to helping to continue that growth in the Western Region. We have an incredible team and will be working together on developing business in both Nevada and Montana in the coming year." says Storms.

Executive Vice President, George Stablein added, "Devin's leadership out west has been nothing short of extraordinary. I am humbled how she has taken on increased responsibility and become an amazing leader within the FNTI family."
